

INSTRUMENT MECHANIC

Instrument mechanic trade is a combination of Electrical, Electronics and Basis Computer. This trade is of two years. In today's modern era without automation there is no progress and instrument mechanic trade is one of the great example to learn overall skills to progress in modern technology. Training is given on following topics like use of Basic Hand Tools, Electrical House Wiring, Use of Electrical Instrument and Calibration, Complete Electronics and Basic Computer, Control of Process like Temperature, Pressure, Flow, Level and Calibration of Instrument, Process control with automation using PLC, DCS, SCADA Software System etc. We have fully equipped Lab, Workshop & Theory Room of this trade to give proper training in ITI to trainees. After this course trainees are eligible for Jobs in Government Sector and in any Industry or can start their on work, shop of being overall skilled person.

